Detective Stories Form Reading of Business Men

Public Library Lists Mystery Novels for Father-Love Stories for Daughter—"He-Man" Westerns for Son and the Slightly Rascally Love Tale for Mother—Many Read Non-Fiction Books.

When tired business men weary of totaling their income tax and wish to ease their super-stressed brains and bodies in the solace of a good book from the public library they invariably call for the latest in detective story fiction. This recreation is common to hundreds of "hard-boiled" business men in Fort Wayne and their choice of literature has become as standard at the library as has that of the sweet young miss.

Their tastes are diverse, ranging from the latest in fiction to the classic, from the mystery novel to the love story, from the western to the non-fiction book.

The public library has a wide variety of books to choose from. The books are arranged in sections for easy access.
